NOTE:

A person must not vote in a local government election unless entitled to do so. If you are not on the List of Registered Electors you may register to vote on General Voting Day or Advance Voting Days providing you meet the eligibility requirements. You must produce two pieces of identification that proves your identity and residency and at least one piece of identification must bear your signature (e.g. driver's licence or credit card).

RESIDENT ELECTOR

To be a resident elector in the jurisdiction you are voting you must meet the following requirements on the day of registration:

- (a) You must be, or will be, age 18 or older on the day of voting
- (b) You must be a Canadian citizen
- (c) You must be a resident of British Columbia for a least 6 months immediately before voting day
- (d) You must not be disqualified by the Local Government Act or any other enactment from voting at this election or otherwise disqualified by law.

NON-RESIDENT PROPERTY ELECTOR

To be registered as a Non-Resident Property Elector of the jurisdiction in which you are voting, you must meet the following requirements on the day of registration:

- a) You must not register as a resident elector
- b) You must be, or will be, age 18 or older on the day of voting
- c) You must be a Canadian citizen
- d) You must have been resident of British Columbia at least 6 months immediately before voting day
- e) You must have been a registered owner of real property within the jurisdiction you are voting for a least 30 days before voting day (the only persons who are registered owners of real property, either as joint tenants or tenants in common, are individuals who are not holding property in trust for a corporation of another trust)
- f) You must not be disqualified by the local Government Act or any other enactment from voting in an election or otherwise disqualified by law.

You must produce two pieces of identification (at least one piece of identification must bear your signature), proof that you are entitled to register in relation to the property, and, if there is more than one owner of the property, written consent from a majority of registered owners that you have been designated to vote accompanied with adequate documentation, such as a Land Title Search, proving ownership of the property claimed as a basis for the vote.

A person may only register as a non-resident property elector in relation to one parcel of real property in the jurisdiction he/she wishes to vote.
