

Free Resources Specializing in Online Safety

Erase Website	A website supported through the BC Ministry of Education, offering resources for students, caregivers, and school staff, pertaining to safety and wellness
Report it Tool	Anonymous reporting tool, providing a secure confidential platform through which students can send concerns to school and district Safe School Coordinator. Messages are only monitored during school hours
Safer Schools Together Family Sessions	Virtual sessions intended to support caregivers and families navigating the digital world. These sessions cover all things digital, including how to be a good digital citizen, the criminal consequences of cyberbullying, and how to report and receive support in cases of sexting/sextortion
CyberTip.ca	Canada's national tipline for reporting online sexual exploitation of children.
Government of Canada: Get Cyber Safe	A national public awareness campaign created to inform Canadians about cyber security and the simple steps they can take to protect themselves online.
What to do if your child is being cyberbullied - Canada.ca	Information offered through Public Safety Canada, in response to youth experiencing cyber bullying
Protect Your Images	Specialized support and resources regarding non consensual intimate images, including information about options and support navigating various pathway(s) of choice.
Take Back Your Images	Specialized support and resources providing information about your options (e.g., applying to the Civil Resolution Tribunal), and help navigating various pathway(s) of choice. Options available to call, email, or text
Need Help Now	Resources and guidance for youth who have had intimate images shared, and are looking to regain control of the situation
Media Smarts	Digital media literacy programs and resources for Canadian homes, schools and communities focused around three main areas: education, public awareness, and research and policy
Kids Help Phone	24/7 e-mental health service offering free, multilingual and confidential support to help all young people Feel Out Loud, including mental health tips and info, crisis support, and professional counselling
988	24/7 mental health and suicide prevention support. Trained crisis responders able to listen, provide support with compassion, and a safe space to talk, while connecting to other resources as appropriate

--	--